

Historical Meeting to be Held on Friday

C-C To Conduct Slogan Contest

Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, is looking for a slogan for the town. In order to make the finding of a slogan more interesting and exciting, two cash prizes will be given. The first prize will be $10 and the second prize will be $5.

What the Chamber of Commerce wants is a ten word slogan to let the general public and tourists know that Canyon is a friendly town that always has the welcome mat out for sincere, law abiding citizens. The contest begins tomorrow and ends midnight, May 13.

Rules of the contest are: Slogan must not be over ten words, descriptive of Canyon; Everyone is eligible; Judges are directors of the Chamber of Commerce; and the contest begins tomorrow and will end next Wednesday night.

You enter by writing a slogan on a piece of paper and mailing it to or bringing it to the Chamber of Commerce office. The Chamber of Commerce office is located on the south side of the square. Anyone can enter and youngsters who desire to get into the contest are asked to get help from their parents. The idea is to sell the town by showing up its excellent qualities. All entries become the property of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber is primarily interested in a slogan to welcome people to Canyon. The slogan will be displayed on sign boards leading into town and on Chamber of Commerce brochures. What is wanted is a slogan similar to other towns, such as "The Town Without a Toothache," "The Friendly City," etc.

First 1953 Auto Death in County Occurs Saturday

Excessively high speed was believed to have caused Randall county's first traffic death of 1953. The crash occurred about 3:25 o'clock Saturday morning about 6 1/2 miles south of town on Highway 87. The victim was M. L. Thrasher, 24, of 605 Lamar Street, Amarillo. He was employed by the Jeffroy Manufacturing Company.

Owner of the car and the other occupant at the time of the crash was Othal Emery Powers, 1611 23, who had served in the military service with Thrasher, was uninjured.

The two young men had been to Plainview and were returning to Amarillo when the mishap occurred. They had just passed a truck when the car evidently went out of control and flipped. One of the officers who visited the scene of the accident said the car turned over 2 1/2 times. He said the car rolled 105 feet before striking a telegraph pole and coming to a stop.

Powers said at the time of the crash he was asleep and didn't remember any of the events leading up to the crash. The truck driver they had just passed stopped to give assistance. A passing motorist stopped at the scene and then came on to town to turn in the alarm.

Justice of the Peace Carl Anderson went to the scene to make his report. One of the officials who was there said Randall County was fortunate in not having a traffic fatality before this. The traffic has been heavy and 1953 was more than four months old before an automobile crash victim was claimed by death.

Read! Read! Read!! Insurance Policy

"Not one person in a thousand reads his insurance policy" stated a prominent citizen of Canyon yesterday.

This man was the intended victim of a company which had misrepresented to him the provisions of a policy for which he had paid.

A typewritten rider had been attached which voided many of the verbal agreements made with the agent who represented the firm.

"Read your policy" was the advice given. "Read it carefully, and understand all of the provisions of the policy before you accept the written agreement," concluded the man. "This might save the people of Randall county a lot of money in the long run if you will call their attention to this seemingly intended fraud," stated the man.

County Court Fines Two for Intoxication

County Judge Roy Joe Stevens handed down two fines Monday morning of $100 each and court costs. The men were picked up over the week-end. Charges against them were driving while intoxicated.

The 32nd annual banquet of the Society will take place at 7 o'clock Friday evening in the cafeteria of the college.

Workshop Opera Will Be Staged Tuesday-Wednesday at Ed. Building

In scenes from "Cosi Fan Tutte (Women Are Like That)," comic opera to be given next Tuesday and Wednesday nights by the West Texas State College Opera Workshop, are the six with roles in the production. At left are Miss Peggy Williams, Plainview soprano, who appears as Dorabella, one of the singers involved in a love entanglement, and Bill Rogers, Tulsa baritone, who plays the role of Guglielmo, one of the lovers who agrees to test the "constancy" of their sweethearts. In the center are Miss Beverly Jo Nance, Amarillo soprano, and John Butler, Chicago basso buffo, who take the parts of Despina, a maid, and Don Alfonso, an elderly, cynical philosopher. The two join forces to disrupt the affairs between the two young military men and their loves. At right are Holmes Ambrose, director of the show who doubles as Ferrando, a tenor role, and Mrs. Thelma Fulton, Canyon graduate student, who sings the part of Fiordiligi. The Mozart opera, in an English language version, is slated at 8:15 p. m. both nights, in the Education Theatre at the college. Tickets are on sale at H. R.'s Greenhouse.

Opera will come again to the Panhandle area Tuesday and Wednesday nights when the West Texas State College Opera Workshop, directed by Holmes Ambrose, presents an English language version of Mozart's comic opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte," or "Women Are Like That."

The musical comedy in two acts will open both nights at 8:15 o'clock in the newly-remodeled Education Theatre. Because of a limited seating capacity (about 500) and because of the enthusiastic reception given last year's production of "HMS Pinafore," Ambrose urged patrons to buy tickets early. Costing $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students, tickets are on sale at H. R.'s Greenhouse in Canyon.

Cast in the opera's six roles are Ambrose as Ferrando; Bill Rogers, Tulsa baritone, as Guglielmo; John Butler, Chicago, as Don Alfonso; Mrs. Thelma Fulton, Canyon, as Fiordiligi; Miss Peggy Williams, Plainview, as Dorabella; and Miss Beverly Jo Nance, Amarillo, as Despina.

Until the Metropolitan Opera Company produced an English version of "Cosi" in 1951, the comic opera was never very successful in this country, because of the language difficulties. In the last two years, however, it has been produced more than 30 times, receiving wide acclaim. The Met's translation by Ruth and Thomas Martin, and the original and only set or orchestra parts, are being used in the Opera Workshop's production.

Plot of the show, which combines the three fine arts fields of music, drama, and art, finds two young members of the military agreeing at the behest of an elderly cynic and philosopher to test the "constancy" of their fiances' love. The philosopher, Don Alfonso, enlists the aid of the girls' maid, Despina, and together they create situations bordering on the ridiculous to disrupt relations between the lovers.

Climax of the opera comes when the two young men return in disguise and win over the two sisters, proving Don Alfonso's point. Reconciliation ends the tale happily.

Ambrose has assembled some of the region's finest musicians to assist with the production. A. Clyde Roller, conductor of the Amarillo Symphony, and a superb oboist, will perform in the orchestra, directed by M. J. Newman, WT music department head. About a dozen members of the Symphony will also join WT musicians in the opera's orchestra. Piano accompaniment will be played by Mrs. Mary Helen Demus.

Staging calls for eight scene changes, with six different sets, all designed and constructed by Miss Beverly Beck, Canyon senior. Art direction is by Emilio Caballero, assistant professor of art, and stage direction is by William A. Moore, director of dramatics at WT.

Girl Dies; and Boy Hurt Sunday

A Borger sophomore was killed and a 10-year-old boy was injured Sunday evening in hiking and climbing activities at Palo Duro State Park. The girl was Carolyn Jean Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers. She fell from a position near the top of Capitol Peak. The fall occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and she died about 8 o'clock in Neblett Hospital.

The boy who was seriously injured and brought to Neblett Hospital suffering brain concussion, was Bruce Bishop of Amarillo. A witness to the Bishop mishap said the boy slid about 25 feet down an incline before falling approximately 75 feet into the bed of a creek. A physician was near who examined the boy before he was brought to Neblett Hospital.

Carolyn Jean lost her footing and fell over a cliff about 100 feet high. Two of her companions were within a few feet of her when she fell. They were rescued in a few hours after suffering exposure and shock.

The Bishop boy was still unconscious this morning in Neblett Hospital as the result of the fall Sunday.

Sheriff Has a Stray Bicycle

A lost bicycle was picked up by Sheriff L. S. Johnston Sunday, April 26, and is still in his possession. At the time the bike was picked up it was pushed into the court house. After staying there for a week the bicycle was moved to the sheriff's office.

Owner of the bike can have it by identifying it, the sheriff said.

Retiring Teacher Honored by P-TA

MRS. JOHN DAVIS

The Canyon Parent-Teacher Association honored Mrs. John Davis by presenting her a life membership in the Texas Congress of Parents-Teachers in appreciation of her loyal service to this organization and to the children of this community.

Mrs. Davis has been a constant member since 1932. She has made an attendance record to be envied, having rarely ever missed a meeting. She has been ever ready to serve in any capacity, considering no job too small for her best efforts.

For several years she was secretary of the local branch. At times she appeared on programs, sometimes as speaker, but more often as director of a program provided by her school children.

She has worked faithfully on any committee to which she was assigned, but her most outstanding contribution is that she has been a faithful teacher who loves and served our children.

Mrs. W. E. Miller gave a beautiful presentation in which she stressed Mrs. Davis' splendid character, unassuming attitude, skill as a teacher, and her interest in each individual pupil and helpfulness to parents.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, who has been a fellow faculty member with Mrs. Davis for many years, presented the pin and certificate of membership with a few words of appreciation.

Draw Six Times To Find Winner

Officials had to draw the sixth ticket Saturday to find a winner for the first prize of $100 which the Chamber of Commerce is giving away each week. The winner, on the last draw, was Mrs. E. O. Hutton.

The other two prize winners were Mrs. C. D. Phillips and Norris Samuelson. Each won $25.

When the drawings were changed to each week instead of once a month it was decided to draw only one time for the final $25 prize. If no one held the ticket the $25 would be added to the final prize on the following week. The first prize of $100 will be given away each Saturday no matter how many times they have to draw.

Man Confesses Cafe Burglary

Burglary charges were being prepared by Sheriff L. S. Johnston Saturday against Bill J. Ballew in connection with the robbery of the Houston Cafe, 1712 Canyon Highway. The cafe was entered about midnight Wednesday.

Ballew, a 24-year-old cafe worker, gave himself up to Amarillo authorities. He was turned over to Sheriff Johnston's deputies in South Amarillo. Later in a statement he confessed burglarizing the place.

Ballew said the first place he tried to enter was the Holston Grocery. He was scared away from this place when a voice informed him that he would be shot if he did not leave. He hid near the Houston Cafe when he saw a police car in the area. The window was easily opened so he climbed through, he said in the confession.

He also said that he took the coin box out of the nickelodeon, took some meat from the refrigerator, some cigarettes from the cigarette machine and carried the cash register out and hid it. When he was taken back to the scene he showed officers where he hid the cash register.

ATTEND TITLE CONVENTION

Mrs. A. B. Duncan, Miss Johnnie Courtney, Mrs. Arthur Bailey Duncan, of Kemp, accompanied by Mrs. Maude E. Hollums of Floydada returned from El Paso Sunday evening. They had attended the 43rd annual convention of the Texas Title Association, Inc., on Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Hollums, sister of A. B. Duncan, addressed the convention at the Saturday morning program. Her subject was "Indexing Methods." Mrs. Hollums is owner of the Arthur B. Duncan Abstract Co. in Floydada, which was established by her and A. B.'s father many years ago.

Mrs. A. W. Harding and son, Jim, of Bowie spent the week-end in the E. P. Harding home.

Pioneer Cowboy Funeral Service Observed Friday

Funeral services for Fred Albert Scott were conducted at 2 o'clock Friday at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, officiated.

Mr. Scott was one of the few persons to see his likeness immortalized before being claimed by death. The statue of the cowboy in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is that of Fred Scott. The plaster-of-paris work was done by Harley Goettsche, a former student of WT. During the last years of his life Scott was looked upon as the typical pioneer cowboy.

Fred Scott was a native of Kentucky. At the time of his death he was a retired cattle rancher. He had lived in Canyon for the past 33 years. The 89-year-old cowboy died at his home Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock. He was a member of the Baptist church and the Masonic Lodge.

The deceased leaves five sons. They are Fred E. Scott, Canyon, Percy H. Scott, Canyon, Carl L. Scott, Luroy, Virginia, Richard A. Scott, Roswell, N. M., and Charles P. Scott, San Francisco, Calif. The survivors also include seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Boots McBroom, E. S. Shero, Charlie Steen, Bruce Gressett, Bill Money, and Lee Foster. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

Hill Talked at Midland C of C

Dr. J. A. Hill was in Midland to talk to the Chamber of Commerce on local development. Midland is a city of 35,000 and has some of the finest buildings in West Texas, states Dr. Hill.

He went on to Alpine where he spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Morelock. Morelock was a former member of West Texas State faculty until elected president of Sul Ross at Alpine. He retired a few years ago and is publishing a book on the development of education in West Texas.

Safety Meeting To Be May 8th

Cities in this vicinity will have an opportunity to learn how Traffic Commissions and Safety Councils may be organized to make their communities safer at the Panhandle Regional Safety Conference to be held in Amarillo on May 8th at the Herring Hotel.

"Those communities who have seen fit to coordinate safety activities through one organization, such as a safety council, have made remarkable progress in reducing their accident toll," E. B. Tilley, president of the Texas Safety Association, said today. He further commented on the economic savings communities have made, through reduced insurance premiums, as a result of an organized effort on the part of the citizens.

Prominent speakers who have a practical working knowledge of this subject and related subjects which work hand in hand with an organized community effort for safety, will be at the conference in Amarillo to give this information to those in attendance.

Civic leaders, P.T.A. groups, service club members, enforcement and school officials and the general public are cordially invited and urged to attend this meeting. The knowledge you gain may save a life — and that life may be your own.

Little Is Saved In Morning Blaze

Canyon volunteer firemen were called out about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning to a fire which had routed five people. J. C. Ogles, his wife and two children, got out of the burning house in their pajamas and only managed to save a few household things.

The burning farm house, located a few miles south of Canyon, belonged to Fletcher Gillham. Firemen who answered the call said the house was destroyed.

The Ogles family of four has lived in Randall County for the past four years. Living with them at the time of the fire was Mr. Ogles' brother.

Collections and donations for the family are being made by friends in Canyon. Any help will be accepted and appreciated.

Week-end visitors in the Clayton Freeman home were Mrs. Freeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gravers of Amarillo. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Parks.

Forget Type of School Plant, Give Kids Chance They Deserve

In the minds of the people of Canyon and the Canyon Independent School District is the very vital question of voting bonds for a new school building. The services of 100 citizens have brought forth sundry and important ideas regarding the building of this new plant.

As one representative put it: "Don't build a plant which will not be in full use for 10 or 20 years, but build an adequate plant for the next 5, 8 or 9 years, and then add to the building."

This is a sane idea. There have been few additions to the present school plant during the past 25 years. Moving the army barracks to the campus as a temporary relief for crowded conditions was a master stroke which postponed a real building campaign. Today these buildings may not look so well on the outside, but they have several years of service left in them.

One thing is sure and certain: The grade school on the college campus must be vacated by order of the Board of Regents by September, 1955, and it is up to the citizens of this district to take care of the children who will be left without ample school facilities at that time.

Regardless of costs, the citizens must act. The education of the children cannot be postponed while we make up our minds about buildings or sites or how much bonds we can vote.

Cross Filing Is Silly Attempt To Deceive Voters of Texas

We could never see any sense of this cross-filing stunt which is popular in some states, and was tried out in Texas last year. At least the legislature is determined to kill this provision if the Governor will go along with it and sign the bill.

So far as the voters of Texas are concerned, cross filing is supposed to be a scheme devised for the purpose of fooling the voters—that is, those voters who think that they cannot under any condition vote for a Republican.

Cross filing is reported to have worked out better in California and other western states where the voters are not afraid to attempt new ventures in politics.

So far as Texas is concerned, the first trial does not mean that the scheme is either a success or a failure. Eisenhower was elected President, and carried Texas, regardless of the scheme to fool the voters. The Democratic candidates, who had cross filed were elected; as well as those who refused to cross file.

On with the battle!

Lewis Wants To Be Free . . .

John L. Lewis has come up with a new idea—repeal all labor laws and allow labor leaders, such as himself, to have a free hand in negotiating with employers.

Lewis probably caused the government to step in and pass as many drastic laws as any other one person. He is reaping the results of these laws today. His miners are working less; collecting less pay; and his slush fund is declining simply because of the greediness of Lewis. Coal has reached the point of diminishing returns. It is cheaper to buy oil than coal.

Never fear! Lewis will not be able to push President Eisenhower around and get his way about repealing the labor laws.

If the laboring men had their way, many of the strict laws would be repealed, not because they were unjust, but because they were needless. However, so long as we have labor racketeers like Lewis around, the laborers realize that here must be a check on these leaders.

Farmer Came to Town . . .

An Oklahoma farmer pulled a stunt on his city cousins which should be repeated throughout the nation.

This farmer drove into town during the period of a busy day and dumped a wagon load of tin cans and junk on the public square.

Hauled into court, his defense was that he was merely returning the junk which had been brought to his farm by city folks.

This matter of keeping a clean town works both ways. There can be no clean town so long as the surrounding country is filthy. There can be no clean farms so long as vandals drive into the country and dump their filth which accumulates in towns.

Let's get together and make Canyon the cleanest town on the Plains; by making the farms of Randall county the cleanest in this area.

Oveta Did Not Make Laws . . .

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby gives no comfort to the Marshall women who are up in arms against the government for forcing them to collect Social Security.

The Marshall women take the position that they do not object to their help taking advantage of Social Security, but they are not going to collect this tax and send the money to the government.

More power to them. This is the very thing which galls all employers, but there is nothing anyone can do about it—except Congress. Mrs. Hobby may be sympathetic to their cause, but she cannot change the law. It is not her job to say what is right or wrong with the law which she is sworn to administer.

Regardless of what may be your opinion as to Social Security or withholding taxes, we shall probably be forced to continue collecting these taxes for many years to come.

Mother's Day Next Sunday . . .

Next Sunday will be Mother's Day—one of the most important days in the year.

Very few persons fully appreciate all that their mother means to them, or all that mother has done for them until it is too late.

Memory of the days which are past still linger in our hearts and our minds of the dear, dead days which are past and gone.

Paying tribute to Mother on Mother's Day is a duty which all of us enjoy and appreciate as the days go by and by.

Now we are told that the Army still doesn't have a top-flight offensive tank. Seems like we've heard that before.

"Solid South" May Not Continue
Solid to Democratic Leadership

Northern Democrats held a pow-wow in New York the other night, basis the 1954 on "Creeping McCarthyism."

Southern Democrats will hold a series of meetings to boost of the fact that the South has always been Democratic, and will always be Democratic.

During the presidential campaign it was demonstrated that the South was not always "solid" and that the voters could use their heads for something besides hat racks. They voted for President Eisenhower; against the man Truman.

Those of us who supported Eisenhower are looking at the acts of the administration rather than the promises of the Democrats who wish to be returned to political power.

Wes Izzard of the Amarillo News states that the editors who heard Eisenhower in Washington were satisfied with what he was accomplishing and had great respect for his ability and his determination to perform what he has set out to do.

$100,000 Prize Money May Not Appeal to the Red Pilots

There will probably be no takers for the $100,000 prize money offered to a Red pilot who flies a Russian built plane over to Korea. The plan suggests that the pilot shall land his plane, undamaged, so that a careful study may be made of these menacing machines of the air. The plan stipulates that $50,000 will be given to subsequent pilots who land their planes, undamaged.

One thing is sure and certain, the Reds are having a tough time keeping up with the psychological warfare which has been turned loose upon them by our forces.

Various ideas have been put forward by the "experts." Some think that the idea will keep the Reds on the defense, while others have the idea that this will be a washout.

We shall see.

Senate Is Certainly Made Up
Of a Lot of Dumb Senators

The opponents of the tideland oil bill say that the month's debate which they have staged in Washington is an educational campaign.

If this is the objective, then we must admit that there are a lot of mighty dumb Senators from all sections of the United States. Senator Lyndon Johnson and Senator Price Daniel of Texas are among those dumb Senators.

During this long debate not more than a dozen members of the Senate remained in the chamber—just enough to catch the speakers off guard should the opportunity present itself.

The idea of staying on the job 24 hours per day for seven days per week has finally caused these 35 Senators to admit that they are whipped and that they are willing to allow the majority to rule.

Weed Control Is Needed With Many New Varieties Introduced

The time was when weeds were practically unknown on the Plains.

Travel in this area; plus high winds; plus shipment of feeds of all kinds; plus the birds; has brought many varieties of weeds which were practically unknown a few years ago.

As a result of the rapid growth of weeds and the various kinds of weeds throughout the section, weeds have multiplied. They are a menace to all kinds of crops.

Meetings which are trying to stamp out weeds are being held in various parts of the Panhandle, in an effort to stamp out the growth and development of weeds.

Coronation Appeals To People . . .

The fate of England and the United States has been so closely interwoven that the coronation is big news in the United States. Naturally it is not of such great importance to our people as it is to the people of England. Yet let it be recalled that in this nation we have campaigns to elect kings and queens and a lot of so-called royalty in various contests. Perhaps we overdo this pageantry stuff, but the folks sure like it.

Right now the popular magazines are appealing to the readers, printing pages of stuff about the coronation and the intimate lives of the royal family.

For a wonder, no magazine has attempted to come up with an article which assailed the character of any member of the family. (The Duke and Duchess possibly have furnished all of this).

Weather Man Forgets Us . . .

When there is nothing else left to talk about, there is always the weather.

So far, we have noted in almost 43 years in Randall county, that there is little or nothing we can do about the weather. Maybe we could bring some showers by investing in the "cloud seeding" equipment. Yet, let it be remembered that it takes a lot of money to seed the clouds.

We can still cuss the weather, and continue to wonder when it is going to rain! We are the forgotten people!!

More Courts For Big D . . .

Dallas county will get two more district courts from this session of the legislature.

We offer the suggestion that if the lawyers of Dallas county will band together and see to it that cases are promptly tried, there will be no need of additional courts.

The legislature will find the money for the courts, although the teachers of Texas must be the political football of this session. With the legislature composed of 75% lawyers, you may expect the lawyers to look look after their profession.

Get The Cash Every Saturday . . .

Cash drawings will be held every week by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

These drawings have been very popular. When cash is offered free of charge, the folks flock in after it.

Come to Canyon and see if you will not be one of the lucky ones to get some of this money.

We know a woman whose brain must look like the interior of a ten-cent store on Saturday afternoon. Her interests are both democratic and numerous, and her thoughts mill ceaselessly from this one to that. From cook aprons and kitchenware to cosmetics and costume jewelry, there's no doubt merit in many of them, but they're all so confusingly different. And as for boredom, she doesn't know the meaning of the word.

Many of her more discriminating friends have chosen a much simpler way. As a result they have a lot of time in which to enjoy one thing. They make miles of needle-point, hammer tons of copper, play thousands of bridge hands, or bake hundreds of meringues, but always with great skill.

But this busy lady likes to do everything. She joins every organization that comes along, takes on some duty, large or small, in each one. She enjoys a career, and for seven hours a weekday gives her all to that. She also loves her home, which absorbs evenings and a part of the week-ends. She adores social activity, and often stays up late and gets up early trying to make 24 hours stretch into thirty-six.

She must have some sort of plan, else she'd surely explode. So we liken her life to the crowded but orderly notion counters, with the narrow aisles of time for shopping among all the things she likes. When and if her mind is ever in repose, it would be like the dime store after closing time. The activities are still there, each with its value clearly marked. Temporarily, motion is suspended, but the threat of it is never removed. Although we've never been a Passed through Fort Sumner, N. M., by bus en route to Albuquerque to speak at a convention, Fort Sumner was a favorite town of Billy the Kid. He was killed at a ranch near there and is buried some distance off the highway. The town has changed a lot since the days of the outlaw. There are modern store buildings and a large school. Lounging in the doorway of the bus station was a man of dark complexion, black eyes, a two days' stubble on his face and he was wearing a worn Western hat, maroon-colored. I thought he was "local atmosphere" there to give tourists a touch of the Old West. However, he was a traveler himself. Across the street was an old plaster building that could have been there in the time of Billy the Kid. And in the Latin American quarter, there were adobe houses. Spanning the Pecos river, a stream only 10 feet wide, was a double-span bridge. And the picture show was presenting a Western thriller with "Wild Bill" Elliott.

If you don't think inflation is here: they are charging 50 cents in Dallas for a hamburger—and at the counter in a drug store, at that. For such a price, you ought to get pure, Kansas City beef, if not platinum or uranium. But many places are using some kind of "filler" in the meat.

The value of a little thing: It was just before I was to make my first appearance on television. The glare of the lights and the heat from the many incandescents contributed to the natural feeling of nervousness. I glanced around and the bull fiddle player of a hilly-billy band winked—and somehow that gave me a feeling that everything was going to be all right.

A consoling thought to authors: No city has ever erected a monument to a book reviewer.

Real service: A sign in Bryan, "Sign painter on duty."

Bugbee Paintings To Be Displayed

An exhibition of paintings of Harold D. Bugbee, curator of art for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum, will go on display in the museum's gallery here Friday.

About 30 of the famed Western artist's works, oils and watercolors, will be shown throughout May, according to Boone McClure, museum director. The exhibition is being held in connection with the annual meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, set May 8.

Included in the collection will be two murals, eight feet by three and one-half feet, portraying early Plains Indian cultures. The murals, with additional ones later to be painted, will be placed above the museum's ethnological display. When Bugbee's murals are completed, there will be 13 decorating the first floor walls.

Picnic-Shower Held For Bride-Elect

A surprise picnic-shower was given Monday evening at the Canyon City Club for bride-elect Doris Bourn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bourn, and the groom-to-be, Franklin Mullican of Snyder. Mullican is a student at West Texas State.

Approximately 50 friends of the couple attended the picnic-shower which began at 6 o'clock. The couple is to be married May 29.

The picnic-shower idea is comparatively new to this area. In the process the couple had to go from place to place, as directed by hidden notes each sending the pair to a different spot where another note is found until they finally get to the presents. After completing directions given in the notes which amounted to a wild goose chase with a wild goose at the end, the couple found all their presents at one spot.

During the course of the evening the bride-elect and groom-to-be and the guests enjoyed a number of games and some of the crowd remained inside the club house and sang. More energetic guests went outside and pitched horseshoes or played volleyball. Refreshments throughout the evening consisted of hot dogs, coffee, punch, potato chips, and cookies.

Miss Lou Ella Patterson stated that if the clubs are interested the commissioners will furnish posts for all roads branching off the pavement in Randall County. The club women could make and furnish the signs naming them.

Delegates who attended the district meeting gave their reports. Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. John Jennings, and Mrs. A. E. Wise were delegates.

The state meeting will be held in Galveston on September 30, October 1 and 2.

Miss Patterson gave a talk and showed charts on poor and good breakfasts. She also told the women that what they ate for breakfast had little chance to add weight.

A called meeting is set for this Friday at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the school. The program will be in celebration of the Home Demonstration Clubs' 50 th Anniversary.

Next regular meeting will be held May 15 at 2:30 p. m. with Georgia Rogers as hostess. Subject of this meeting will be "Christian Influence in Our Community."

Recognition Given Recent Library Gift

On May 4 at the regular meeting of the Randall County Library Board, special recognition was given Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Brown in their presentation of eight volumes of THE BOOK OF LIFE, with book plate designed by Miss Isabel Robinson of the art department of West Texas State.

This set of books was donated to the Memorial Shelf and is dedicated to Judge and Mrs. Cyrus Eakman and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brown, Sr., parents of the donors.

Board members present were Mrs. Walter Graham, Mrs. Lon Fanning, Mrs. Chester Pierle, Miss Darthula Walker, Mrs. M. B. Measamer, Mrs. Levi Cole, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, and Mrs. H. A. Brown, guest.

Rev. T. Winston Wilbanks has written the following review of THE BOOK OF LIFE.

THE BOOK OF LIFE, in eight volumes, arranged and edited by Newton Marshall Hall and Irving Francis Wood and published by John Rudin & Company, is a recent addition to our local public library.

The aim of this set of books is "to get the Bible read . . . help people . . . to understand it, to appreciate it and to enjoy it." The editors have tried to "use every possible plan and device and piece of historical information to make the Bible a real and living book . . . to make the Bible live again for this generation." They achieve their objective in a very fine way.

The text used in these books is the "King James." The arrangement is both chronological and logical. Each volume is subdivided into periods convenient for reading and study and the text is provided with brief introductory and explanatory notes. Chapter and verse divisions are omitted but brief references to them appear at the end of each section.

There are over 700 pictures used to illustrate the volumes—these include many photographs. Many pictures are in color and reproduce the world's great works of art. There are nearly 40 outline maps. Also, some of the great poems and hymns of our biblical heritage are included.

The volumes include the following: Volume One—Bible Treasures (a collection of Bible stories, poems, hymns, songs and pictures, graded and intended especially for the younger members of the family but of interest to the older ones, too); Volume Two—Bible Heroes, Pioneers (with hymns and poems); Volume Three — Bible Kings, Captains (with hymns and poems); Volume Four — Bible Prophets, Statesmen; Volume Five —Bible Poetry (Psalms, Job, Lamentations, and selections from Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, and Ecclesiastes);

Volume Six—Life of the Master (the Gospels and Acts, with hymns and songs); Volume Seven—Paul, Life, Letters, (with letters of other leaders of the early church, including the Revelation); Volume Eight—Bible Educator—Indexes (articles with suggestions designed to help make effective use of the other volumes, such as, "Bible Stories and How to Tell Them," "Biblical Dramas and Pageantry," a series of nine "Courses in Bible Reading." The Indexes include "Quotations from the Bible in English and American Literature" and a "Table of Weights and Measures."

This set of books is recommended for family use or individual use. The volumes can be of very great personal value to individuals who use them. They can also be very helpful to parents and to Sunday School teachers. If used rightly they will, truly, help to make the Bible a living Book.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

Strange Happenings on the Floor

I have just returned from a session of the House of Representatives in which a rather odd situation arose.

The measure before the House was a bill of six lines that read as follows: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the 1952 crop of Maryland tobacco shall be supported at 90 per centum of the parity price effective on the date of enactment of this Act."

To those not familiar with the farm program this piece of legislation might appear very innocent. The background of it is that the tobacco farmers in southern Maryland were given an opportunity to vote in accordance with the farm price support law for the purpose of deciding whether or not they wanted to accept planting quotas and become eligible for the price supports provided by law.

It developed in the debate that 71 per cent of the farmers voted against quotas and therefore against becoming eligible for price supports. This meant that only 29 per cent were in favor of the support program prior to the time the crop was planted. In other words, 71 per cent of the farmers in that section preferred to plant all of the tobacco that they could possibly raise and take their chances on the open market, thereby waiving any rights to price supports.

The testimony before the Agriculture reflected that the tobacco so planted is now in the barns of Maryland farmers to be sold next summer, but it appears that the price they will receive for this tobacco is not equal to the price they could have received from the Commodity Credit Corporation had they elected to come under the price support program. Therefore, this bill was introduced for the purpose of requiring the Commodity Credit Corporation to take this crop into the loan program, even though the farmers in southern Maryland had by an almost 3 to 1 majority elected to take their chances on the open market and had a free hand to plant as much tobacco as they desired.

It reminded me of the case of the Negro boy who was hailed before a court to answer a charge. The judge asked him if he wanted to plead guilty or not guilty. The Negro boy told the Judge that he would like to hear the evidence first. That is exactly the situation that the Maryland tobacco farmers were in. They want to wait until the crop is in and find out what the market is before they decide on the support program.

If this policy should be followed on basic commodities as a general farm price support program, it would bankrupt this country in no time at all. And if the Maryland tobacco farmers are entitled to such a program, it would be hard to argue that the farmers raising other basic commodities would not be entitled to the same treatment.

The few proposed amendments to the bill which were intended to do away with its bad features were shouted down on voice vote and soundly defeated on a teller vote, neither of which votes are recorded. Then on final passage of the bill a record vote was called for, and enough members were in favor of the record vote to insure it. On the vote on final passage of the bill it was defeated by the resounding margin of 213 to 110.

THE DAR: The DAR convention has been in full swing in Washington for the past week. Mrs. Clyde Warwick, of Canyon, Mrs. J. A. Brannen and Miss Wilida Neely, of Amarillo attended. I had the pleasure of having lunch with them in the House Restaurant today, together with S. B. and Frances Whittenburg, of Amarillo, former Lt. Governor Walter Woodul, of Houston, my good wife, Jean, and four year-old daughter, Mary Catherine. It was a most pleasant experience, and I obtained much information about the great work that the Daughters of The American Revolution are doing.

GIRL, 12, HAS TWINS

Russellville, Ky. — Mrs. Myrtle Brummett, who is only 12 years of age, recently gave birth to twin sons, each of which tipped the scales at a little more than four pounds. Mrs. Brummett's husband, William, 22, stationed at an army post in Maryland, managed to get home just shortly before the birth of his sons.

RECORD TRAFFIC FINE

New York, N. Y. — Mrs. Lee Maggio was assessed the largest fine ever imposed on an individual traffic violator in New York City — $2,950, or if she chooses, 118 days in jail. She had ignored 59 traffic tickets, some of them three years old.

Two old maids went for a tramp in the woods. The tramp escaped.

In Her HONOR

Yes-sir-ee, the world voted her a day and Heaven was glad. Right now you should wrap up your heart in a card or a package and deliver it at once. She gave you life and love . . . what have you given her? Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket when cold, our light in a dark room . . . it takes Mother every time.

There is something very special, something extra that comes only from mother . . . she makes us tick. Life will not change Mother's love, death will not conquer it. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts us to new attempts and the strength we need to see us through. This is Mother's Day, may we be with her in Church.

You In The Church...
The Church In You
Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be faithful. Be a Churchman!

Lyndon Johnson Reports From National Capital

By LYNDON B. JOHNSON
Senior Senator from Texas

PEACE PROGRAM: A program for real peace was presented to the world by President Eisenhower in his recent address before American newspaper editors. The President spoke as the leader of the nation — not as the leader of a political party. He looked for ways of getting out of our difficulties — not for pointless arguments about how we got into them. He stressed the basic principles that unite Americans — not the partisan differences that divide them. As your Senator — as an American — I support that kind of program. I am ready at any time to do whatever I can to help the President carry it out.

POSTMASTER EXAMS: Postmaster vacancies in 80 Texas towns and cities have been announced. There may be more to come. All eligible registers were terminated when the Civil Service Commission, at the request of the new Postmaster General, "raised standards" for postmasters.

I wrote the Postmaster General to ask (1) if postmasterhips are to be denied because of political affiliations to persons who have passed Civil Service examinations recently but whose appointments have yet to be confirmed, and (2) if postal appointments are to be removed from Civil Service.

The Deputy Postmaster General replied that "No one is being denied opportunity to compete for a postmastership because of political affiliations." He said standards had been raised because "The position is much more important than has been generally recognized." It is interesting that the Republicans didn't recognize the importance of postmasters until they started making the appointments. He also wrote: "There is no intention of removing from office any of the postmasters appointed during the previous administration if they are now performing and continue to perform satisfactory service."

TEXAS STATE SOCIETY: President and Mrs. Eisenhower were honor guests at a Texas State Society "brunch" last Sunday. We felt it highly appropriate that our first native Texan President should attend this post-San Jacinto Day celebration.

Nearly a thousand Texans now living in Washington were on hand.

QUICKIES: John C. White, able young Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, was here on official business. So was Harry Ullom, Chief of Diometric Services for the State Hospital Board. W. W. Cardwell of Bandera visited my office and presented me with an invitation to attend Bandera's mammoth Centennial Celebration

June 11-13. Woody Edmiston is General Centennial Chairman.

Want a good cookbook? I'll send you the Agriculture Department's "Family Fare" on request. A number of fine Texas ladies were here last week for the national meeting of the D. A. R. Several paid us a visit. Some live wires from the Texas League of Women Voters also came by to see me. Basic principle for any sound farm program: Remember — the man on the street depends on the man in the fields.

WALKS 11,700 MILES

Buffalo, N. Y. — Dick Cook, 52, of Gainesville, Fla., hiked 11,700 miles, through 44 states, at about 20 to 25 miles a day, to visit Niagara Falls. Pulling a 450-pound red wagon, he left his home on April 1st, 1951, and arrived in Buffalo on April 7, 1953. However, he says he didn't travel all the time—when he came across friendly people, he just sat around and talked for a spell.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

Truce negotiators are convinced that a deal in Korea will be impossible on any reasonable terms unless inspired by large-scale military pressure from our side. American military leaders would like to be given a chance to give the Communists a shove that might make them jump at a truce.

The White House conclusion is that the Army and its top generals, not the Communist Party leaders, now represent the dominant power in Russia. Georgi Malenkov and his committee of associates are regarded as fronts, not securely entrenched rulers.

Winston Churchill's idea that he might singlehandedly work out the basis for a peace deal in a personal meeting with Malenkov startles American diplomats.

The truth is that President Eisenhower himself was author of the address in which he offered the world a plan for peace. An assistant, Emmet Hughes, had a hand in shaping and pointing up many phrases that sharpened the President's ideas for public reception.

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, tends to be less optimistic about doing business with the Russians than is Mr. Eisenhower.

Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess, two important British diplomats who went over to the Communist side, are believed by American intelligence sources to be authors of Communist newspaper articles designed to counter President Eisenhower's peace offer. Maclean was head of the American desk in the British Foreign Office and combines skill in propaganda techniques with firsthand knowledge of American policy.

Military planners of this country are beginning to question more and more how this country can depend upon France as the cornerstone of all defense in Europe when 1 out of every 4 French votes is Communist. The fifth column in France, in event of trouble, would be quite terrific.

American troops are being committed indefinitely to the front lines in Europe, face to face with Communist forces, unsupported by German forces and dependent almost solely upon support from a France containing great numbers of Communist supporters.

President Eisenhower is less inclined than he was to worry about how Congress will react to the ideas he has about how the country should be run. The President, instead, is bolder in asking Congress to take actions that he knows will not please all elements in the Republican Party.

It is dawning on the White House that Joseph Martin, Jr., House Speaker, and his team in the House of Representatives are entitled to recognition for getting results in pushing Administration proposals. The House is further along than the Senate in implementing Eisenhower plans.

Martin Durkin, Secretary of Labor, is having an uncomfortable time in his job. As a former labor leader, he finds it difficult to make himself go along with Republican ideas on labor laws and, yet, as Secretary of Labor, he is expected to speak for the Republicans on labor issues. Mr. Durkin has hoped to avoid the need to testify before committees of Congress.

George Humphrey, Treasury Secretary and No. 1 adviser on economic policy for the Eisenhower Administration, is his own author and speech writer. The Humphrey speech on the business outlook that attracted so much attention was the personal product of the Secretary himself, dictated without aid or advice from professional "ghosts."

Admiral Arthur Radford, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet, continues to be No. 1 on the list of those in line to succeed Gen. Omar Bradley as Chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff when General Bradley steps out next August. Gen. Nathan Twining, Vice Chief of Staff for the Air Force, is in line to move up to the top job in that service branch when Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg retires as Staff Chief.

Carl Perriman Gave Talk on Work of FBI to Rotarians

Carl Perriman of Amarillo made an interesting talk Tuesday at the weekly luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club. The program was in charge of John Gillis.

Seated at the head table were Boone McClure, Lee Johnson, J. D. Barker, and Mr. Perriman, all members of the '28 Class of West Texas State.

There are 52 offices of the FBI scattered over the nation. Mr. Perriman is classed as a resident agent, living in Amarillo, with headquarters in Dallas.

There is nothing mystical about the work of the organization, stated the speaker. J. Edgar Hoover believes that every federal employee should do a full day's work, and therefore every minute of every day is accounted for by these agents.

The fact that the public believes in the organization and trusts the men engaged is the reason for their fine success. The agents are the "foot" boys for the United States Attorney. They assemble all of the facts and turn them over to the attorney, who handles the prosecution. The fact that convictions amount to 98% of the cases in which indictments are returned is a good example of the thoroughness of the force.

Mr. Perriman gave two examples of cases on which he had been engaged, and the methods used in tracing down and capturing criminals.

Fourteen guests were present from Amarillo, Hereford, and Lubbock.

The House of Representatives wrangled this week over whether to adjourn quickly or pass a tax to pay teachers more money.

The bill to increase teacher salaries $600 per year passed both Senate and House.

But Comptroller Robert S. Calvert says there is not enough money in sight to cover the cost of the bill, estimated at $33 million or more per year.

Therefore, it is necessary for the Legislature to pass a tax bill if the teachers are to get a salary increase.

Meanwhile, there was a delay in consideration of tax bills. At the same time, there was pressure for adjournment of the Legislature next Tuesday.

That put the House in the middle of a squeeze play: if they quit so early the chances to get a tax bill passed were remote.

To quit without a tax bill would deny the teachers a raise; to continue in session might be hard to do, inasmuch as Representative John Crosthwait of Dallas claimed majority support of his resolution to adjourn.

What would be the answer to the $33 million question?

Both Governor Allan Shivers and Speaker Reuben Senterfitt thought they knew. Both predicted that no new tax measure would pass.

Senterfitt yielded the gavel in order to vote for the teacher pay bill, but he commented that "it will gain the teachers nothing unless we pass the biggest tax bill in the history of Texas."

He added that in his judgment the people of Texas would not tolerate a tax of that size.

An $84 million omnibus levy, sponsored by Representative Geo. Berry of Lubbock, was being considered to raise additional revenue.

If the Legislature adjourns on schedule — that is, at the end of its regular 120 day session next Tuesday — House members may be on a political hot seat.

They would be asked why they voted a pay raise for teachers, then failed to provide funds for it.

Senators would have the reply that the House did not give them a tax bill to consider. (Tax bills must originate in the House.)

One alternative to passing a tax bill now is to wait and see if the courts uphold a natural gas tax law, passed by the last Legislature, that would put $45 million into the treasury.

If the law is held valid after this session adjourns, there would doubtless be demands for a special session to appropriate the money.

The teachers would see the funds as properly going for an increase in their salaries, in view of the Legislature's approval of that course.

Senators heard charges of official misconduct against District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin and recommended passage of a resolution calling for a legislative investigation.

Approval of the House is required to authorize a probe of the South Texas political figure.

Laughlin was elected 79th district judge last year with the help of Duval County political boss George Parr.

Among other things, the judge is charged with dismissing without authority about 60 Starr County indictments involving election irregularities.

The House passed and sent to the senate a bill intended to ban books containing Communist propaganda from school, college, and public libraries.

The bill requires removal of books if they contain Red propaganda, ridicule the home, religion, the Constitution, or Texas history.

Representative Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio accepted a change which exempts from the ban any books which the governing boards of schools consider "useful for comparative work, or constructive purposes."

Opponents of the bill said the change left the ban up to local school officials, who already have such authority.

Another change calls for a big red stamp in books written by members of former members of a Communist or front organization.

Opponents argued that labeling some books as subversive might make them more tempting to youngsters.

There was continuous skirmishing over small loan legislation. Opponents won a round last week by delaying a bill by Representative Reagan Huffman of Marshall.

Among other things, the bill proposes jail sentence for any lender whose charges exceed 36 per cent a year. Supporters of the bill say this, along with other proposed legislation, would eliminate loan sharks.

Most Texas finance companies disagree by saying that the small loan bills would only drive loan sharks underground and would give a foreign corporation unfair advantages over reputable Texas lending institutions.

Texas business will suffer unless an adequate road program is provided by this legislature, says J. H. Kuitgen of Waco, president of Texas Good Roads Association.

Kuitgen commented here that more than 20 groups had recently appeared before the highway commission seeking funds for road improvements. They were told the money was not available.

Kuitgen asked support for a legislative remedy.

The Texas Liquor Control Board reports an increase in revenues.

Administrator Coke R. Stevenson, Jr., reported that state liquor collections in March of this year were nearly $1.5 million, greater than the same month a year ago.

These revenues go mainly to the state's "clearance" fund, and thence to schools, farm-market roads, needy blind, dependent children, teacher retirement, old age assistance, and other state purposes.

J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education, urged school people to take the lead in fighting un-American influences.

A new state law requires all persons paid with state funds to file loyalty oaths.

The Legislature offered a way for the state to get a courts building and office building without additional cost to taxpayers.

The proposed constitutional amendment, to be voted on by the people in November, would authorize the use of Confederate pension funds for the buildings.

W. B. Hager Identifies Last Week's Mystery Farm

Last week's mystery farm was that of Harry Hager, located about 11 miles southeast of town. The place is being farmed by W. B. Hager, son of Harry Hager. The 960 acre farm has been in the Hager family about 30 years. W. B. Hager and his wife, Ida, have lived on the farm since their marriage three years ago. The couple has one son, Ronnie, who will be two years old in December. Main products grown on the farm are wheat, grain sorghum, and whiteface cattle. Farming is done with modern equipment and soil conservation is practiced. "Soil conservation is a good thing and more people should pay heed to it," Mr. Hager said Thursday when he stopped by The News office to pick up his free picture. Mr. Hager has been reading The Canyon News about three years. His favorite section of the paper is the want ads section. He also enjoys the editorials.

The Eagle's Tale

27th Year

Published by The Canyon News for Canyon High School

Road To Excellency

The good student with high grades, who does more work than is required, finds many difficulties during school years. He must conquer himself, give up many pleasures, and overcome the jealousy of his classmates.

The classmates don't want to hurt a good student, but they do not want him to get ahead of them. They would like to make as good as he, but they pretend they don't care, and that grades mean nothing to them.

Jealous classmates cannot tolerate the respect teachers have for the better pupil. Jealous friends would like to do better work, but they don't want to work for it. They want something for nothing.

Fellow classmates try to break a good student's morale by calling him a bookworm, and making fun of him because he spends much time working instead of playing. Sometimes such a campaign succeeds, causing a student to drop from excellent ratings in school to mediocrity.

No one needs to make a choice between social activities and school work, if he budgets his time. He can and must fix his goals and move ever toward them regardless of temptations.

Associate only with those whose interests correspond with yours. These friends will stick by you, and you by them. Together you can decide upon time allowed for work and play.

Be friendly to all, and snobbish toward none. See that you don't deserve unkind things said about you. Be agreeable to those who do not obstruct your course, but ignore those who taunt you.

Profit By Mistakes

"One profits by his mistakes." This old saying has proved to be true many times. Of course, one may regret the errors that he has made in the preceding years, but he surely will not repeat those mistakes.

An example of the truth of this saying is this. If you are one of those persons who has made quite a few mistakes this year in your school life, then you will probably not make the same mistakes next year.

If you are a senior and will go out into the world on your own or to college before long, you have also profited by the mistakes made in your school year.

Some of these mistakes include playing hooky, just barely getting by from day to day with very low grades, or otherwise breaking the standards and rules of the school.

If you are one of those persons who has made these mistakes and others, you have the consolation that you can do better in the years to come. Whether you are a senior or will still be a high school student next year, you can remember the errors of your ways and their regretful results.

There are still two and a half more weeks of school. A lot of work can be done in a short time. Just because there are only a few more days of school left does not mean that one can just stop studying and coast until the school term has ended. It means that one should study harder than ever and make high grades to make up for those that perhaps haven't been so good in the past. So keep on plugging. Remember it will pay off in the long run.

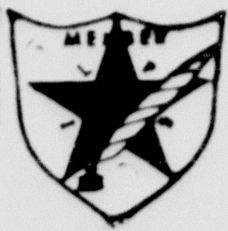

Home Ec Classes Have Open House

CHS homemaker department is planning an open house Thursday, May 7, honoring the mothers of the students taking homemaker I, II, and III. Other guests are welcomed. The 44 homemaker I students will act as hostesses in the afternoon from 12:45 to 4 p. m.

Exhibits showing some of the activities of the classes will be home nursing, clothing, economical meals, safety first, table setting, child care, and home projects.

Simple refreshments will be served in the living room of the Homemaker department.

FFA Team Wins Top Ten Rating

Four FFA teams from the area contests at Lubbock placed in the top ten places in the state contest held at Texas A&M College this week-end. One of these, the CHS Dairy Cattle team, won fifth place in the state event out of 88 competing teams.

This team was presented with an FFA plaque for state achievement. Jimmy Kuhlman was third high man in the state, out of 33,000 boys. Other members of this team were Norman Tucek, Edward Hinders, and alternate, Garland Ruthart.

The livestock team placed 11th in state with Doyle Bourn placing fourth high man in the state in this contest. Members of the team were Doyle Bourn, Larry Porter, and Foster Parker.

Results of the dairy products team have not yet been sent out, but they were not in the upper ten places. Team members were Tom Middleton, Jerry Downing, Jack McCormick, and Larry Hunge.

As ol' Cal was a walkin' long the street the other day about 40 years from now, all of a sudden he heard a terrible racket. Before he had time to turn around and look, something snatched him up and whirled him straight up into the air. It carried him over the great metropolis of Canyon where he viewed a great many changes in our dear little town.

Flying along he spied a funeral parlor run by Tom Middleton. A sign stood before the door which read, "We give S&H green stamps." Another sign stood beside it which said, "We're bound to get your trade sooner or later."

Not long after seeing that sign which gave him such a blow, his eyes fell upon another strange phenomenon. It was a tavern run by Richard Busted. A little neon sign blinked on and off that spelled out "Duck In and Wobble Out." This nearly caused ol' Cal to swallow his false teeth!

Say, these high winds that have been blowing around hyar lately have really got ol' Cal in a tizzy. He was emerging from the school building the other day and smash! smack into Annette Pond who had anchors, bricks, and a lot of other armor tied around her to keep her weighted down so the wind wouldn't just take her up and blow her clean away.

Cal inched his way on outside, being careful to hold fast to the building with his fingertips. He peered through the dust and dirt and saw strange contraptions tied to the cars parked in front. Sure enough, they were ropes tied to stakes in the ground to hold the vehicles to the earth.

Well, here's 'till the next time when ol' Cal comes breezing back with just another big bag of wind.

Pastor Addresses CCYC Assembly

"Mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly small." "You can never do anything evil without paying evil consequences," stated Rev. Winston Wilbanks of the Presbyterian Church as he emphasized cleanliness in mind, body, and soul in the keynote address Wednesday in CCYC assembly.

"We in America are a trashy people. We are careless about a lot of things," he said. This lack of cleanliness and the filth found in some of the cities of America shows a weakness of character in other respects. The speaker compared character to wood in that soft character, life soft wood, decays quickest, while hard wood, like strong character, lasts long and stands against temptations.

"This matter of doing right is something we all must be working on," the speaker said. If one is not clean in mind, body, and soul, he cannot enjoy life to the fullest extent. He read this passage from the Bible: "For their sakes I will sanctify myself." For the sake of those around one, a person must keep himself clean in mind, body, and soul.

Charles Boling, junior, began the program with reading of one of the Psalms. Following this, Ray Green led the student body in "Faith of Our Fathers." Elaine Cundiff then read the scripture reading, and Ray sang a song.

Displays Distinctive Desk

Mitch Murry is shown with the desk which will be entered in national competition at Dearborn, Michigan. The superior industrial arts class product consists of 150 different pieces and consumed seven months to finish.

Murry Finishes Colonial Desk

Mitch Murry, sophomore, has spent more than seven months building an early colonial desk of wild cherry. In that length of time most students would have given up for lack of continued interest or would have created an inferior project, but the desk is a superior piece of work.

This ability to stick to one job until it is complete, versatility, and at the same time producing a beautiful and useful project, together with an enjoyment in creating, are just a few outstanding characteristics of Mitch, and that is why he has produced such a superior project. The desk contains more than 150 different pieces, all of which had to be cut and sanded to fit perfectly.

Sports captures a major part of Mitch's time. He played on the freshman and B football, basketball, and tennis teams both years in high school. As president of his class, he shows his added ability as a leader.

Mitch's desk is being sent to Dearborn, Mich., to compete in a national craftsmanship contest, sponsored for the past seven years by the Ford Motor Company. The fundamental purpose of the contest is to encourage good craftsmanship in production of industrial arts work throughout the United States and its possessions.

The 7,500 entries in this contest mark enthusiasts from the United States, Hawaii, and Alaska. First, second, and third prizes will be awarded in 13 divisions of decorative and serviceable art products. Mitch's desk has been entered in the woodworking division.

In addition to the award given in these competitive divisions, 30 outstanding craftsmanship awards are given. These awards are in the form of three-day, all expense paid tours through the Ford Manufacturing Plant. Judges for the contests are nationally known instructors of crafts, commercial art, and industrial arts in high schools, colleges, and universities.

CHS Visits Park On Annual Picnic

Palo Duro State Park was again the setting for one of the most anticipated activities of the school year—the all-school picnic—all day Friday. School was dismissed and all high school students and instructors went to the park.

During the day, contests between different classes were conducted in softball and volleyball. The senior class were winners in softball, both girls and boys. The freshman girls were winners in volleyball.

Those not participating in these games waded the creeks or went on hikes through the hills.

A new thing greatly appreciated by the students was the music furnished all day. The sound system given CHS last year by the seniors was used.

The picnic lunch prepared by the cafeteria women consisted of hot dogs, potato chips, muffins, cheerios, and bottled drinks. Assistance was given the teachers and sponsors by room parents who made the trip.

No one was seriously injured during the day, however, some students received minor scratches.

Picnic Discussed In Class Meetings

Students of Canyon High School assembled for class meetings April 27 in the various rooms to discuss the annual school picnic and other important matters of business.

The seniors, meeting in room 29, discussed the senior trip, the newly arrived invitations, the gift to be presented to the school at the end of the term, and the class party held Thursday. Plans for the all-school picnic were also discussed.

Members of the junior, sophomore, and freshman classes also discussed the all-school picnic and made tentative plans for different parties.

NHSI Scholarship Granted To Green

The National High School Institute of Northwestern University of Evanston, Ill., has recently granted two-year journalist Ralph Green a scholarship which pays the tuition for a five-week study in journalism this summer.

Ralph is one of the few recipients of the scholarships from hundreds of applicants all over the nation. He is the only applicant from Texas to receive the award.

The letter which announced this award stated that Ralph's high scholastic rating and many extra-curricular activities placed him in the "front ranks of the applicants." The session will open June 28 and run through August 1. Advanced and technical training in the journalistic field will be taught.

Committees Plan School Buildings

More plans were made toward the future of needed school buildings for Canyon in a regular meeting of the chairmen and members of five committees with the finance committee and chairman. The meeting was held Tuesday evening, April 28, in the Canyon High School library with approximately 25 attending.

It was definitely decided that in the near future an architect will be consulted to begin work on estimated costs. Through estimating the size a new school building will need to be, prices can be calculated.

No definite decisions have been made as to where the buildings will be located, but at the present time Canyon Independent School District owns 18 acres of land south of Canyon on the highway. This area will be considered for its location.

After an architect has set an estimated cost, another meeting of these committees will be called and additional plans will be formulated. A previous survey of present building facilities had been made.

CHS Spanish Club Attends 'Sombbrero'

Honoring the '53 Spanish Queen, Laura Smith, the Spanish students and sponsor, Miss Marilyn A. Payne, viewed the motion picture "Sombbrero," the week-end of May 2 at the Varsity Theater.

The tragic love story, "Sombbrero," filmed in Mexico, was about a violent feud between two towns, Milpa Verde and Columbia. Three romances developed in the story involving differences in social classes, and between citizens from the feuding villages. The three couples in these romances were Maira and Alejandro, Ruben and Lola, and Eugenia and Pepe.

The screen play was by Norman Foster and Josefina Niggli, author of the book, "A Mexican Village," from which the movie was taken. Choreography by Cyd Charisse was by Herman Pan. The movie starred Ricardo Montalban, Pier Angeli, Vittorio Gassman, Yvonne de Carlo, Rick Jason, and Amarillo's own Cyd Charisse.

Fourteen students from Spanish I and II attended.

Homemaking Girls Complete Sewing

All freshman clothing students wear the dresses they have just completed in homemaker I classes Thursday, May 7. This is the third garment they have completed this year, a skirt, blouse, and then a dress. Cottons in rainbow colors, glazed, prints, and solids are popular.

The buttonholes were worked with new attachments in the homemaker department. Belts and buckles were made by the students. Two new electric machines were added to the department for this purpose.

Dress styles were chosen after students studied line and design. Colorful skirts and fitted waists seem to be the most popular. Sleeveless sunbaths with and without baleros head the list in the styles chosen.

Posters Are Sent To State Contest

Posters made by Sheila Dixon, eighth grade, Hubert Green, ninth grade, Jerry Martin, eleventh grade, and La Rue Davis, twelfth grade, will be sent to Austin to the state-wide fire prevention poster contest. Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department at West Texas State College, noted with a great deal of pleasure the originality of outstanding pictures on every level and skill shown by junior high students in handling paints. While viewing the art exhibit last week she selected these posters to be sent to state competition. There was no entry from the tenth grade.

SENIORS SKATE AT PARTY

Sore seniors Friday, came as a result of hard falls from skates, which took the place of a hayride planned for the senior class Thursday night.

Because of the high wind, the seniors skated, played volleyball and baseball. The room mothers served a picnic lunch in the cafeteria following the games.

The next senior social, a swimming party, is scheduled for May 22.

Who Is Owner of "The Mystery Farm" of This Week?

Do you know who owns this mystery farm? This little guessing game is a weekly feature of The Canyon News. Many times friends of the farmers who own the mystery farms call in before the owners themselves. When the owner of the farm comes to The News office and identifies his place he gets a free gloss print of the farm. The farmer who owns the place may not have seen the picture yet. If you can identify the picture and live near the farm, call the owner and tell him about it.

Victims of Stomach Trouble; Sunburn And Ingrown Toenails Have Troubles

The victim of an upset stomach is indeed an unhappy soul. As the trite, but true, phrase goes, there are times he's afraid he'll die and times he's afraid he WON'T die. Of course, many causes for nausea and vomiting exist, such as motion sickness; eating when tired, nervous, or emotionally upset; or eating food to which the patient just happens to be sensitive. Motion sickness is tied up with the ear and the brain. If you know you're subject to this condition and yet have to take repeated air trips or must go on a long ocean voyage, you should seek medical advice. Drugs to control airsickness or seasickness are available, and your doctor can give you tips for travel, such as the following: (1) Eat a light, bland diet (not highly seasoned or greasy) before you embark. (2) Pick a seat near the center of the vessel where there is likely to be the least motion. (3) Keep your eye on a definite object on the ground or horizon and don't allow it to shift with the position of the ship or plane. (4) Try plugging the ears with cotton or wearing an abdominal support. (5) If a hot meal is offered on the trip, eat it if you are at all able.

If you become sick anyway, ask the stewardess or someone else for help right away. She can bathe your face, put your head back, and adjust the ventilation, among other things possibly to ward off the attack or lessen its severity.

Foods for a picnic should be wisely chosen. Chicken salad, potato salad, or custard pie which may spoil should be left out unless it can be kept cold, and any food should not be prepared too long in advance. Because of good sanitation and preparation of food, very few cases of food poisoning occur in the home. However, epidemics of food poisoning among eaters in restaurants or patrons of bakeries whose choice of pies are cream or custard are not too uncommon.

If there are signs of food poisoning—a feeling of fullness, abdominal cramps, nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea—the patient should be put to bed and given nothing by mouth except water until the doctor sees him. Diarrhea can be a sign of other kinds of illness, for example, intestinal or general infection, dysentery, or appendicitis.

Victims of bad sunburn sometimes have an upset stomach. Of course, in their cases an ounce of prevention would truly have been worth a pound of cure. However, discomfort of the burn may be relieved in one or more of the following ways: (1) a lukewarm-to-warm bath, (2) sponging with a solution of tea, epsom salts, or vinegar, (3) applying a creamy lotion, (4) applying a dressing covered with sterile petroleum jelly if there is blistering. Heavily starched clothing should be avoided, and perhaps some kind of pillow support can be rigged up to keep the top sheet off the burned area at night. The dead skin should be allowed to slough off of its own accord, using cold cream or lotion and leaving off face powder might make peeling less noticeable.

If there's anything that makes a person feel worse than a queasy stomach, its hurting feet, and corns can be one of the worst offenders. Avoiding tight narrow shoes, discarding old shoes that no longer fit, and not wearing wrinkled or holey stockings are essential to get rid of corns.

It's not much use to use corn plasters or other remedies unless the cause of corns is removed—that is, the bad fitting footwear. Paring corns with a knife, razor blade, or scissors is foolish because the possibility of getting an infection through a nick in the skin.

Ingrowing toenails sometimes can be prevented by cutting the nail straight across. A good way to treat an ingrowing toenail is the following: (1) In the late afternoon, soak the toe in warm water 15 minutes; when the nail becomes soft and pliable, dry the foot thoroughly. (2) Gently lift the side of the nail that "grows in" with a nail file and tuck a small wisp of dry cotton under it. (3) Remove the cotton at bedtime; soak again and tuck fresh cotton under. (4) Remove the cotton the next morning. While your toe is sore, wear a loose fitting house slipper.

If either a corn or ingrowing toenail fails to improve with home treatment, call your doctor. Diabetic patients in particular have to be careful about their feet because even a minor infection may lead to gangrene.

Club President Writes Poem on Club Anniversary

This week marks the 50th anniversary of the Home Demonstration Clubs and those in the vicinity have been asked to have a called meeting and a special short program. In honor of the occasion, one club worker has written a poem. The writer is Mrs. Charles Sutton, president of the Center-view Home Demonstration Club. Recently she and her husband celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary.

Before becoming president of the club Mrs. Sutton also served as secretary and treasurer. It was only this year that she moved up to president of the club. Here is her poem.

This is our 50th anniversary, And we must confess, Hard work of our agents Has made it a success. They have driven many weary miles

Through rain or shine, And if you haven't noticed, They are always on time. They work with zeal and always a smile,

I guess they know their work is worthwhile. She has taught us how to sew a fine seam,

How to can tomatoes as well as a bean. We have learned how to make nice, quick bread,

And for the daughters how to make a nice bed.

Into our home across the nation They have brought us interior decoration.

Now some of my furniture sure was a mess. But I have re-done it and with success.

Made slip covers for chairs, Shampooed my rugs, (Then went to the garden and sprayed the old bugs),

For beautifying our lawn, There was no mistaking,

When we learned new modern landscaping. And some of my neighbors made no mistake,

When they went out and planted a nice windbreak. How to put out bulbs, prune our fruit trees,

And to take care of our green shrubbery.

Now I was out of meat and raising the chickens, My agent said, "Why don't you raise some chickens?"

I'd better raise chickens than go out and beg, Now I'm having fried chicken as well as eggs.

Now when it came to making pies I just looked with disgust,

Until I learned to make nice flaky pie crust. They have lots of patience

And worked very hard, Showed me how to have an attractive backyard.

There's a barbecue pit, it's a nice place to dine. (Oh, yes, have you seen my nice clothes line?)

There is bright flowers with grass where children play, "Hey, mom, can we use your nice silver club tray?"

Now I thought that was all but no just wait, We named our homes, hung the sign o'er the gate.

Now I believe this is all but it will sure be a treat,

When we can tailor our suits and process our meats.

Like I said at the beginning we will have to confess,

Hard work of our agents has made us a success.

So here's to the agents that gone on before,

We realize your efforts every day more and more.

So here's to the agents, let us give them good cheer,

Our hat's off to them twelve

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost . . .

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Everything is a little late this year. Even the April showers didn't get here until May. It's better late than never and the thing to hope for now is to get the showers in May instead of later.

Last week also revealed an error in connection with a news story concerning the Boy Scouts. Local Scout workers and district Scout workers are two different organizations and in a story a while back district workers were called local workers. Now that we have a line on the difference in the two we'll try to keep the stories straight.

District Scout committeemen are Dr. C. R. Nester, Jack Jennings, Frank Kimbrough, Charles Donnell, Stuart Condon, Jr., Bill Sternberg, Bob Bellah, Rev. Winston Wilbanks, Tulon G. White, Rev. Win R. Matsler, and W. M. Teague.

Local Scout workers are Edd Pettitt, Wayne Bagley, Frank Barnhill, J. A. Young, Tom Beard, John Hunter, Elwood Shero, and Gene Root. These are the people responsible for keeping the local Scout organization active.

Right now the Scouts are busy with a concession stand on Saturdays selling coffee and cookies near the bandstand on the square. The money from these sales will help the boys send a larger number of Scouts to the big national camporee being held this summer in Southern California.

The civil defense program that is now being organized in Canyon is a sort of pivoting organization to serve equally well in peace time or in war. Its function in peace time will be to help out when there is a disaster. One of the most important phases of the program is that of teaching the people to keep calm, cool, and collected. It has been proven that where there have been disasters there have also been needless deaths caused by hysterical actions.

There is some literature available on what the general public should do in case of disaster. This can be obtained through Jack Jennings, Bill Sternberg, or Alvin McDonald. There are charts telling what to do in case of an air raid warning and there is also a booklet giving some basic instructions in emergency action to save lives. The only thing better than being fully prepared for such an emergency is for it not to happen.

The one thing people should stop talking about now is spring fever. Spring is nearly half over, it's summer vacation fever now.

Another horrible error came home Thursday afternoon when some names on the back of a piece of paper were noticed. The list contained 13 names of high school football players out for spring training in addition to those used in last week's news story. The story was written Wednesday morning only minutes before going to press. In the great haste to make the press the back of the page was not checked and the names failed to make the story.

Here are the high school football linemen who got lost in the scramble Wednesday: Al Meyers, Charles Joyner, Bill McBroom, Jimmie Johnson, Tommy Davis, Don Lundergreen, Bill Harrison, Burton Davis, Farrell Davenport, Larry Thompson, John Hill, Gerald Free, and Curtis Stroup.

Today's coffee talk doesn't start with "Did 'ja hear the one about the traveling salesman and the farmer's daughter?" Things are a little more accelerated today. The session starts with "The modern wolf is like modern dry cleaners, both work fast and leave no ring."

Then the man on your right counters with "Yes, and if you keep your head when everyone else is losing their's, it's possible that you don't know the situation."

If the talk turns to conserving natural resources the next thing to discuss may be what is being done. There's always someone ready to answer, "I'm helping save our timber. I shot a woodpecker once."

Baptist Students Win State Honors

Last weekend 22 Baptist students from the WT campus went to the State BSU Spring Planning Convention at Latham Springs, near Waco, to prepare themselves for serving most effectively in their respective council positions here on the campus next year.

Several honors came to West Texas State during that week-end. Marshall Jones was elected to serve as one of seven state-wide officers, chosen from the most able and outstanding Baptist students in all Texas colleges. He will be a member of the State BSU Council for 1953-1954.

Barbara Dunn was formally presented as one of 11 student summer missionaries, sent out by Texas Baptist students to serve in various parts of the world during the summer. Barbara, a junior from Littlefield, will serve in Mexico. Baptist students over the state have raised over $5,000 for transportation and expenses of these summer missionaries, from Africa to Hawaii.

Three members of the West Texas BSU are members of the State BSU Choir, a signal honor. They are Marshall Jones, Barbara Dunn, and Anita Tooley. Marshall and Barbara will travel with this choir this summer on a tour of the major cities of the South and will be included in the Ridgcrest Student Assembly program in North Carolina for five days in June.

Three From WT Will Attend Tech Inauguration

Three members of the faculty will attend the inauguration of Dr. E. N. Jones as president of Texas Technological College May 18, as official representatives of three colleges.

MONEY BACK AFTER 3 YEARS

Wright, Minn. — While shopping in a Duluth (Minn.) dime store, Mrs. E. W. Groth lost her billfold which contained between $65 and $75. On Good Friday of this year, she received the billfold back through the mail in an envelope with a Duluth postmark. Inside was $100 and an unsigned note, in a woman's handwriting, which said, in part: "When I found your wallet I was desperately in need of money. I felt if I used your money to pay some of my bills, I would soon be able to save enough to pay you back. Please forgive me for not returning it sooner."

Teacher of Tomorrow

Jane Keen

Winning over candidates from 28 other Texas colleges, Jane Keen, Higgins sophomore, recently walked away with the trophy that gives her the title of "Miss Teacher of Tomorrow of Texas."

The honors were captured in a state-wide contest at East Texas State College in Commerce.

Jim L. White, a North Texas State student, was named "Mr. Teacher of Tomorrow." West Texas State's candidate was Virgil Holloway, Amarillo senior.

Jane, the daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. Roy Keen, is majoring in speech and special education, and plans to enter the field of speech and hearing correction in the public schools.

Jane is a member of the FTA, the Buffalo Gals, Buffalo Masquers, Wesley Foundation, and the Wesley Players.

Mrs. Nell Owen, Dallas, who recently won the title of "Most Beautiful Teacher in America," presented the trophy to Jane at coronation ceremonies in the ETSC student union.

Be Sure In Use Of Detergents To Read Directions

There are detergents advertised on today's market for practically any cleaning job—from cutting stubborn grease on a mechanic's hands, to discouraging fleas on the family poodle.

They work too, in most instances, but State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox has this word of warning: "Make sure you follow the directions to the letter." Otherwise you could end up with a discomfiting case of "housewives eczema."

These so-called "soapless" products have found wide favor with housewives for washing clothes and dishes. No doubt a good bit of their popularity is due to high powered advertising, including the decorative boxes featuring happy ladies hanging the washing or putting up dishes which the product has cleaned all by itself.

Dr. Cox identifies the active ingredients of these products as chemical compounds which act to lower surface tension of water, making it more penetrating and able to get through grease and dirt to break it up and keep it from resettling.

Many brands contain special purpose ingredients, such as ammonium salt, which make the compound bactericidal.

A duck is supposed to sink like a rock in water containing some of these detergents, probably because the "wetter" water gets through the oil in the duck's feathers—which is the reason a duck is ordinarily water proof and able to float.

It stands to reason, Dr. Cox points out, that if these compounds will cut through grease and film, and there is no doubt that some of them will—they will also penetrate the natural oils of the skin and cause irritation and discomfort if the condition is neglected.

The health officer's recommendation? Keep some hand lotion within easy reach and apply it liberally after using detergents for household cleaning or laundry.

AN OUNCE OF

PREVENTION

IS THE STITCH IN TIME

"Have those tonsils removed before school starts," advised the Doctor, speaking to Ernest Teffort regarding Junior's health. "It is a small task to remedy the trouble now, but allow it to run on indefinitely and it is impossible to estimate the damage that can be done by so small a thing as an infected tooth or tonsil."

"We'll have it taken care of, Doctor."

But the Doctor was just warming up to his subject. "Take the case of John Gootch. The fall he had would never have crippled him as it did if his body had not been full of poison from diseased tonsils. He will probably never be much better, and his wife and children are destitute. Yet the remedy was simple, if taken ten years ago."

"That is nature's way," commented Ernest. "We stand helplessly by while a flood eats its way through millions of dollars worth of property, taking lives indiscriminately, and are powerless to halt a dust storm in its progress across the state. Yet these particular calamities could have been prevented by taking the proper precautions years ago."

"I don't believe I quite understand—"

"Floods definitely have been on the increase since the forests were cut down and all the land put into cultivation. The dust bowl menace was unheard of before the prairie grass was plowed under."

"But the population has increased. More land must be cultivated."

"But not in the heedless way it has been done in the past. You say it is wiser to keep teeth healthy than to try to repair them after decay has set in. Still it is definitely more unwise to ignore the decay until the damage is irreparable."

"We cannot much longer ignore the fact of erosion if American agriculture is to continue."
